Vision: Manifesting Christ in Many Ways to Many People

"Haven't I commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Don't be afraid. Don't be DISMAYED, for Yahweh your God is with you wherever you go." – Joshua 1:9

Psalm 42:1-11 NASB

Sadness is both personal AND universal.

A maskil – from the Sons of Korah

Elohim harkens back to El Shaddai, the God who is Almighty.

Why are there so many names for God? We don't have a vocabulary in any language that can adequately wrap its arms around the grandeur and magnificence of God.

Elohim = The God Who Has All Power

Our sadness can turn to gladness when we see God as Deliverer.

People get sad when they imagine that God goes absent.

"As the deer pants for the water, so my soul longs for you."

The presence of God does not always mean the absence of sadness.

People get sad when they imagine divine abandonment.

Psalm 42:6-7 NASB – My soul is in despair within me;
Therefore I remember You from the land of the Jordan
And the [b]peaks of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.
7 Deep calls to deep at the sound of Your waterfalls;
All Your breakers and Your waves have passed over me.
I say to God my Rock, "Why have you forgotten me?"

"He did this so that all the peoples of the earth might know that the hand of the Lord is powerful and so that you might always fear the Lord your God."
– Joshua 4:24

The remedy the psalmist uses for this melancholy is remembering the faithfulness of God.

GATHER

Sundays in January - 9a + 11a
Overcome - Conquering Your Jericho

The battle of Jericho was the ultimate challenge for Joshua and the Israelites. The walls loomed above them in the same way many tensions and troubles stand in our way – finances, family, work, health, relationships – we strive to overcome them and often struggle. As we study this incredible book, God's answer for Joshua can provide guidance for us to see our Jerichos conquered through the power Jesus promises.
