

WORD OF THE KINGDOM

Dwelling Place Church
Vision: Manifesting
Christ in Many Ways to Many People

Jude 3 - Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints.

The book of Jude does not communicate new truth or revelation. This means you can clearly establish what is taught in this letter elsewhere in Scripture.

Therefore, in understanding Jude's meaning and intent other Scriptures can give light for clarity.

1. The faith.

- a. "pistis" – relating trust; relational trust
- b. God has spoken to us by His Son Jesus Christ. (Heb 1:2)
- c. God has communicated to us who live now in the last days by His Son in these three areas of His word, His will, His way.
 - i. Words (Lk 9:26, Jn 17:17)
 - ii. Will (Jn 7:17; Heb 10:5-7)
 - iii. Way (Jn 14:6; Is 55:9)
- d. The "faith" which was once for all delivered to the saints is a faith related to Jesus.

2. Once for all delivered to the saints.

- a. hap'-ax – one time
- b. par-ad-id'-o-mee (verb)
 - i. to give into the hands (of another)
 - ii. to give over into (one's) power or use
 - iii. to commit, to commend
 - iv. to deliver by narrating, to report
 - v. to permit; allow
- c. The words of faith have been once and for all delivered.
- d. The will and way to live according to the faith have been once and for all delivered.
- e. It is through what was once for all delivered that you can be truly delivered.

3. The unbelievers and apostates.

- a. Throughout Jude's letter you see him constantly highlighting the words, the will, and the way of unbelievers and apostates.
- b. They deny they are following God and His Son Jesus Christ through their words; how they speak.
- c. They deny they are following God and His Son Jesus Christ through their will; how they live and who they live for.
- d. They deny they are following God and His Son Jesus Christ through their way; how they go about doing things.

4. Message of the Kingdom (Mt 13)

- a. 30
- b. 60
- c. 100 fold

Jude 22-23 - And on some have compassion, making a distinction; 23 but others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

GATHER

SUNDAYS IN JULY- 9A + 11A - HEY JUDE

What are you listening to? From one of the shortest books in the Bible, we find a challenge to not listen to the false ideologies of the world but instead to stand for our faith. As timely as the day it was written, Jude speaks to where faith and culture intersect. Jude is a small book, but has a BIG message. For every time you don't think you can make it, that you want to quit, compromise, and throw in the towel, Jude implores us to keep going. Fight for the faith. Fight for each other.
