

Romans 14:7, "For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit."

The desire for purpose and fulfillment are common to all. They are also God given. Therefore, we seek to satisfy them.

We seek purpose and fulfillment through differing paths and redirect when we are left in want.

For some, pursuit becomes the purpose and often impose the pressure of "more" on others.

When "more" defines us or becomes our identity, God will seek to "undo" more in our lives.

God invites us to a walk of obedience leading to more that fulfills, more that lasts, more that matters – there is a way of more.

In John 4:9-18, the Samaritan woman is offered more from Jesus. She's found her value and identity in marriages that have left her dissatisfied. He offers her the gift of God. And He offers it to you as well.

The gift of God is Jesus and His Kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

1. Through the gift of righteousness we are liberated to live righteously! Liberated to live out the good works He has prepared for us, bringing the purpose we've been seeking for. Jesus is the gift of God for your need of purpose.
 - a. 2 Corinthians 5:21

2. Peace comes from the presence of God. It is a choice. What we choose to allow in our lives will either forfeit our peace or allow us to walk in it. Allowing the Holy Spirit to govern our thinking will keep us in peace.
 - a. Romans 5:1
 - b. Romans 8:5-7

3. Joy comes from fellowship with Jesus. Prioritizing fellowship with Jesus allows us to constantly cast our cares upon Him resulting in confidence and joy. God wants us to live in joy because joy empowers us to endure all things.
 - a. Psalms 16:11
 - b. Hebrews 12:2-3

Jesus is our righteousness, peace, and joy! And that is everything!

GATHER

Sundays in May - 9a + 11a
What Would Jesus Undo?

We've all heard the question 'what would Jesus do?' We wore the bracelets, the t-shirts, and even asked ourselves that question as a way to make sure our beliefs matched up with our actions. But have you ever thought about the questions 'What Would Jesus Undo?' What would He undo in the world we live in? What would He not do? What would He undo in us? If Jesus is undoing something in our life, we can be sure of a few things. It's for our good, it's for His glory, and ultimately He has something better for us. Let the undoing begin.
