

THE "I AM" WHO SUSTAINS US

Vision: Manifesting Christ in
Many Ways to Many People

Psalm 55:22 NIV - Cast your cares on the Lord, and he will sustain you; he will never let the righteous be shaken.

Exodus 3:1-14 NIV

Most of our spiritual problems go back to a view of God that is too small.

Insecurity is the voice inside of you that whispers,
"I am not _____ enough."

"Who am I?" is an echo of the very question that the Israelites had thrown in Moses's face the 1st time he tried to rescue them.

"Who are you and why would we follow you?" (Ex 2:14)

Confidence, genuine bravery, comes not from a better assessment of your potential but a clearer view of God.

"I don't need you to be a VICTOR, Moses, just a VESSEL."

Many people make a critical mistake in reading the Bible. They assume the Bible is primarily about them, a manual of spiritual tips for helping them achieve a victorious Christian life. The Bible is primarily about God, not you. Page after page reveals who He is, and only when you come to an awareness of who He is can you discover who you are. Only by becoming confident in His purposes will you ever become confident in yours.

Feeling inadequate is a prerequisite to being used by God.

The name "I AM" is used 6,519X in the OT alone!

The Bible's message, you see, is not about your self-actualization. The Bible is about God: what God did for you and what He can accomplish through you.

Promises of Warning
Promises of Rescue
Promises of Guidance
Promises of Comfort
Promises of Hope

Psalm 55:2-3 NIV - hear me and answer me. My thoughts trouble me and I am distraught because of what my enemy is saying, because of the threats of the wicked; for they bring down suffering on me and assail me in their anger.
